What are my obligations?

- You must pay your premium.
- You must provide any information we require to assess your claim.
- You must notify us if you have another insurance that covers the same risk.
- The Alarm Center from the insurer must be contacted immediately after an incident and prior to any consultation at this phone number +49 69 9778899-999.
- All documents that are to be provided must be translated into English (no legal translation is necessary).
- By accepting the general insurance conditions, you release all doctors and (para-) medical staff who have examined you before and after the claim from your obligation to maintain medical confidentiality towards the insurer.
- It is your responsibility to verify that the online purchase was successful, and that the certificate was issued and received by email, the paid amount is correctly charged and information accuracy on the certificate.

When and how do I pay?

Receipt of the premium payment by the insurer is an essential part of the insurance contract, regardless of the payment method. The payment of the premiums must be made in its entirety, any transaction fees are at the expense of the insured.

- The payment must be done before the start date of the insurance policy.
- Payment can be made by credit card or bank transfer.

When does the cover start and end?

The policy duration commences on midnight (12 pm) on the date specified in the insurance contract and ends at midnight (12 pm) on the final day mentioned in the insurance contract.

How do I cancel the contract?

The insurer is willing to accept the cancellation in writing and reimburse the insurance premium in the event that the insured or a rightful person is able to prove with original medical certificates, death certificate of the insured party, certification that they have been summoned by the authorities (police, judiciary or administrative) or with other original documents that there is an objective impediment to travel or, the insured does not obtain a visa for the country of destination. A visa rejection letter from an embassy or consulate must be sent to the insurer in order to be eligible for a refund. The Insurer will refund 70% of the paid premium. All premiums under EUR 25 will not be refunded.

The policy can be cancelled and a refund can be claimed only prior to the starting date of the period of coverage stated on the insurance certificate. After the start date, the policy cannot be cancelled and no refund can be claimed.

Refunding of the insurance premium will be made by the insurer using the same payment method and currency as that used by the insured. Any charges for bank transfer or credit cards are not supported by the insurer.
